VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

- 2015 Indonesia International Work-camp \(IIWC\), Salatiga, Indonesia.
- Description: From September 19 to 30, 2015, I participated in the IIWC held in Salatiga, Indonesia. Specifically, I served as a Camp Leader for the Indonesia-Japan Bilateral Work-camp, overseeing various activities related to kids and education at the Abu Hurairah Orphanage, organized by the IIWC. This experience allowed me to actively contribute to fostering positive educational environments for children.
- 2015 Indonesia International Work-camp \(IIWC\), Salatiga, Indonesia.
- Description: From June 14 to 6, 2015, I participated in the IIWC in Semarang, Indonesia. As part of the Environment Project, my contributions focused on preserving the coastal environment, including activities such as planting mangrove trees and trees in the Gedong Songo Temple area, all organized by the IIWC. This hands-on experience enhanced my commitment to environmental conservation and sustainable practices.
- 2017 Never Ending International Work-camp Exchange \(NICE\),
- Description: In September 2017, I took part in the NICE program in

Fukushima, Japan, engaging in a Forest Conservation Project. Throughout the program, I dedicated my efforts to maintaining local forests while also organizing activities for children. My involvement in these impactful workcamp activities was facilitated through the Gerakan Kerelawanan International (GREAT). This experience not only allowed me to contribute to environmental preservation but also enriched my understanding of global volunteerism and its positive impact on local communities.

Associazione Kora

Branca, Portugal

Description: From September 7 to 21, 2019, I engaged in an Environmental Project organized by Associazione Kora in Branca, Portugal. This initiative, titled World Exchange 2, was combined with an International Workcamp, with a specific emphasis on permaculture. My participation in these activities was facilitated through the Network for Voluntary Development in Asia (NVDA). This experience significantly not only enriched my understanding of sustainable practices and global collaborative efforts in environmental conservation but also reinforced my dedication to global volunteerism.
